when people eat, their lower esophageal sphincter (les) opens to let in food, and then closes up again to prevent acid from entering the stomach but those games were against schools like davidson, florida atlantic, uncasheville, east carolina and vermont local pharmacies are participating in the program and if residents do not receive the cards in the mail,